Foresthall Luxury Tented Camp - Accommodation in Grabouw, Western Cape, South Africa

Foresthall Luxury Tented Camp - Accommodation in Grabouw, Western Cape lies in one of the Cape's most beautiful valleys. Set in Forest, this self-catering tented camp comprises 4 luxury private tents, each sleeping two people, and a central boma area, overlooking the breathtaking Elgrin valley. At the days end, relax on the patio of your tent as you watch the sun disappear over the valley or join friends for a memorable evening around a crackling log fire.

Each of the four Tents has either a queen or double bed, and an en-suite bathroom with hand basin, toilet and open shower. All the tents are candlelit, and in winter, down Duvets and gas heaters to ensure a comfortable stay. Early morning tea and coffee with freshly baked muffins and rusks are delivered to the tents each morning.

It's no secret that the Elgin Valley, only an hour's drive out of Cape Town, boasts some of the best mountain biking terrain the Cape has to offer. They invite you to come and experience some of the finest mountain biking terrain in the Western Cape, where the combination of rolling orchards, mountainous fynbos and forested pine slopes ensure a unique riding experience. As a complete beginner, you have a choice of a number of marked trails, as a more advanced rider they offer challenging ascents with plenty of single track through shady pine forest. The Elgin Valley for 4 x 4 - trout's fruit picking, trout fishing and picnics. Experience the art of Fly - fishing in well - stocked dams.

Letter stating that the Forest Hall Tented Lodge operated from 1999 to 2006 on the same area as that currently leased to Old Mac (Vuki Farming, August 2010).
19 November 2010

This letter confirms that Old Mac Daddy leased the farm from Vuki Farming and consulted with Vuki Farming, prior to their project construction commencing, and were informed by Vuki Farming that the proposed building was above any known flood line.

We also provided aerial data confirming that a previous tent camp had operated for a number of years on the same site.
